COVID related issues:

We understand that in the current climate, situations change quickly and at the last minute, therefore, we offer all delegates the opportunity to transfer their registration from a physical attendance ticket, to a 'Virtual Attendance' ticket right up to the event and during the event. This will allow you to enjoy all the content from isolation or quarantine restrictions as they may be relevant to you.

Should the event be effected due to current QLD Health Orders, we will postpone the event to a date that is possible with all service providers

EECON 2022 and the organiser will not offer any compensation for lost travel and/or accommodation charges. Please ensure you have the appropriate travel insurances in place to cover you for these costs.
